

Social Workers and Social Service Workers Professional Development Fund

The Social Workers and Social Service Workers Professional Development Fund (The Fund) provides funding for educational opportunities to registered social workers and social service workers who are in good standing* with the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers.

The Fund reimburses eligible costs for professional development (PD) activities that advance the skills, knowledge, practice and service delivery of social workers and social service workers in Ontario.

Eligibility and Application Information:

- Be a registered member, in good standing*, of the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers.
- PD activities completed between September 1st, 2016 and August 31st, 2017 are eligible for up to $500.
- Applications must be submitted within 90 days after the completion date of the PD activity.
- Proof of payment and successful completion of PD activity is required at the time of application.
- Be willing to be contacted to participate in a short online evaluation survey to provide the Ministry of Community and Social Services with feedback on the Fund.
